

The college offers a number of special study opportunities that enrich the regular course offerings. Emory & Henry supports work experience programs, study abroad, independent study, and other variations of the traditional classroom work that add a special dimension to the educational program and providing intellectual motivation.