

ART 206 : Digital Photography I

Techniques and processes of digital image-making with cameras, including image capture, manipulation, work flow, organization, and digital printing. Emphasizes professional standards, technical proficiency, and individual artistic expression.

Semester Hours 3.0