

CVIN 126 : Skills Seminar: Interviewing and Collaborative Research

Students acquire skills for organizing and implementing collaborative research to find innovative responses to community needs. Students learn how to deploy interviewing, transcription, and reporting skills, and social media skills for effective collaborative innovation and project implementation.

Semester Hours 1.0