

CVIN 225 : Skills Seminar: Funding Innovation

Students understand the difference between conventional funding such as grants from foundations and funders who act as investors in innovative responses to problems, questions, and issues, looking for a return on the investment. Students accommodate and address both opportunities.

Semester Hours 1.0