

ECON 260 : Law and Economics

Applications of economics to property, contracts, torts, and criminal law, emphasizing property rights, breach of contract, product liability and punishment.

Semester Hours 3.0

Prerequisites

ECON 101: Contemporary Economic Issues

ECON 151: Principles of Microeconomics

Either ECON 101 or ECON 151 - both are not required.