

ECON 322 : International Trade

Trade theory and policy; role of tariffs and other barriers; international monetary theory and practice, including role of fiscal and monetary policy under floating and fixed exchange rate regimes. Overview of international economic institutions, including the World Trade Organization and the International Monetary Fund.

Semester Hours 3.0

Prerequisites

ECON 151: Principles of Microeconomics

Corequisites

ECON 152: Principles of Macroeconomics