

EDUC 305 : Human Growth and Development

Study of growth and development from birth through adolescence, contributing to an understanding of the physical, social, intellectual, emotional, and psychological development of children and youth, and the ability to use this understanding in guiding teaching and learning experiences. Focus on implications for education, early childhood through adolescence. Includes a service learning component.

Semester Hours 3.0

Prerequisites

Must be enrolled in EDUC 114 during the same semester or have instructor permission.