

EQST 324 : Methods of Teaching

This course will introduce the skills and techniques used to teach riding students of various levels and age groups. This course will analyze the rider's position and its use. Students will learn basic philosophies of teaching and how the student learns as well as develop their knowledge of the materials they will be teaching. This course will be presented through lectures, teaching labs and assistant teaching.

Semester Hours 3.0

Prerequisites

Junior or senior status or instructor permission.