

PHIL 335 : Philosophy of Religion

Critical examination of philosophical problems of religion: nature of religion, religious experience, theistic proofs, religious knowledge, religious language, alternative views of God, problem of evil, relation of religion and value experience.

Semester Hours 3.0

Prerequisites

PHIL 101 or PHIL 211 or instructor permission.