

PJST 400 : Capstone Internship and Seminar

Capstone Internship and Seminar - Grounded in a rigorous internship experience with a local peace and social justice organization, students will synthesize their learning in the minor through readings and discussions, with particular attention given towards the implications of their learning as it relates to their roles in communities and careers.

Semester Hours 3.0