

CHEM 125 : Introduction to General, Organic, and Biological Chemistry

This course covers the fundamental concepts of chemistry including nomenclature; stoichiometry; atomic and electronic structure; thermochemistry; bonding; periodic correlations; the behavior of solids, liquids and gases; and an introduction to organic functional groups and biomolecules. Primarily intended for students interested in Nursing.

Semester Hours 3.0