

International Business

Degree Type
Concentration

School of Business Concentrations

While a concentration is not required to major in Business Administration or Accounting, the opportunity exists for students at the School of Business to develop a specialty area in Leadership, Entrepreneurship, International Business, or Hospitality Management. To earn a concentration in one of the listed concentration areas, consult the requirements below:

Item #	Title	Semester Hours
BUAD 204	Business Law II	3
BUAD 320	Issues in International Management	3
	Choice of at least 6 credit hours from the following courses:
	Total Credits	12

Choice of at least 6 credit hours from the following courses:

Item #	Title	Semester Hours
POLS 105	Introduction to International Relations	3
POLS 221	Writing in Political Science	3
POLS 225	Comparative Politics in the Middle East & North Africa	3
POLS 245	Comparative Politics of Asia	3
POLS 255	Politics of Latin America	3
ECON 322	International Trade	3