ACCT 401: Advanced Accounting

Examination of theory and procedures used in accounting for business combinations and consolidated financial statements, segment and interim reporting, reporting requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and international accounting standards.
Semester Hours: 3
Prerequisites:
301 or permission of instructor.
Program: Business Administration