

ATR 230: Emergency Care for Health Professionals

Preparation as it relates to addressing emergency situations, including first aid, CPR , AED, oxygen administration, monitoring and interpreting vital signs. Addressing acute emergent conditions including cardiac arrest, airway management, wound care, and splinting. Two lecture hours and two lab hours.

Credits: 3

Lab Hours: 2

Lecture Hours: 2

Program: Athletic Training & Exercise Science