

CHEM 125: Introduction to General, Organic, and Biological Chemistry

This course covers the fundamental concepts of chemistry including nomenclature; stoichiometry; atomic and electronic structure; thermochemistry; bonding; periodic correlations; the behavior of solids, liquids and gases; and an introduction to organic functional groups and biomolecules. Primarily intended for students interested in Nursing. Three semester hours.

Semester Hours: 3

Program: Chemistry