

DPT 716: Pharmacology

A study of pharmacological principles in relation to rehabilitation of patients with systems impairments, with inclusion of the possible benefits and side effects of pharmacological agents in patients undergoing physical rehabilitation.

Semester Hours: 2

Program: Physical Therapy