

EGSC 330: Controls and Systems

Study of digital electronics, computer control systems, and robotic interface with sensors with an emphasis on application and problem-solving. Additionally, the course will examine stability, feedback, transient response and frequency sampling methods. Prerequisites: EGSC 120 and PHYS 202. Three lecture hours and three laboratory hours. Four semester hours.