

EGSC 498: Capstone Engineering Project Design

Capstone project planning and preparations, including completion of a formal project proposal and acquisition of any required resources. Review of the literature. Proposal must be approved by supervising faculty. Prerequisites: engineering major with senior status and permission of department. One semester hour.

Credits: 1

Program: Engineering