

GNST 205: Introduction to Healthcare Professions

An overview of the healthcare professions including a description of the responsibilities associated with each profession, appropriate undergraduate preparation, and steps in the application process. Students will develop personal educational plans to pursue entrance into their desired healthcare field.

Credits: 1

Program: General Studies