

HHP 211: Foundations of Health & Safety & Phys Ed

Principles and philosophy of safety, health, and physical education including liability; historical, psychological, and biomechanical influences; and contributions to general education. Organization and administration of modern programs in levels K-12.

Credits: 3

Program: Health & Human Performance