

MATH 420 : History of Math

The historical development of mathematics over the past 5,000 years, including typical mathematical problems from various historical periods and biographical and philosophical aspects of mathematics.

Semester Hours 3.0

Prerequisites

Mathematics major with senior status or departmental permission.