

NURS 205: Health Assessment

The development of skills in conducting a thorough, comprehensive health assessment with health history taking. Students will apply communication techniques in interviewing, the use of standard nursing assessment tools, ability to document findings from the assessment, and to analyze the data gathered to formulate a plan of care and promotion and health teaching of information from collected data. This course will involve lab time in the nursing lab and simulation lab.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

BIOL 120, 121.

Co-Requisites:

NURS 202, 203.

Program: Nursing