

PHIL 212: History of Modern Philosophy

Development of philosophical ideas as seen in writings of selected thinkers from Renaissance through 19th century. Hobbes, Descartes, Spinoza, Leibniz, Locke, Berkeley, Hume, Kant, and Hegel. This course satisfies the Modes of Inquiry requirement for Interpreting Texts.

Semester Hours: 3

Program: Religion & Philosophy