

PHIL 335: Philosophy of Religion

Critical examination of philosophical problems of religion: nature of religion, religious experience, theistic proofs, religious knowledge, religious language, alternative views of God, problem of evil, relation of religion and value experience.

Semester Hours: 3

Prerequisites:

101 or 211 or permission of instructor.

Program: Religion & Philosophy