

PHYS 455X: Mathematics of the Physical Science

Series solutions of differential equations, Fourier analysis, partial differential equations, and functions of a complex variable with emphasis on application to physical systems.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

353 and Physics 202, or departmental permission.

Program: Physics