

PJST 200: Nonviolence and Conflict Resolution

Nonviolence and Conflict Resolution - Examination of various theories and approaches to nonviolent action, including but not limited to civil disobedience, economic actions, and other disruptive tactics; and, examination of various theories and applications of nonviolent conflict resolution. Students will explore these topics through historic and contemporary examples through the study of social action in India, South Africa, and the United States.

Credits: 3

Program: Peace & Social Justice Studies